Scholarship Awards Night Successful

Impressive ceremonies were held in Horace Allen School Thursday evening, when top students in the high school were presented with scholarship awards by representatives of the various sponsoring organizations.

Principal Horace Allen opened the affair with a few remarks on the necessity of education in today's life. He also commended the groups sponsoring the scholarships and congratulated the students for their fine efforts made during the past term.

Mr. Allen called on each of the sponsors and introduced each of the winning pupils. After receiving their awards the students expressed their appreciation to the sponsors, to the teachers and parents for their guidance and to their fellow classmates for their competitive attitudes.

Winner of the Grade seven award was Karl Hummel, and the Grade eight award, Linda Montgomery. The cheques were awarded by Helen Nedd, president of the Coleman Home and School Association, who also presented an award to Mark Andrew Ondrus.

Winners of the Grade nine Coleman Elks Lodge No. 117 award, presented by Exalted Ruler Bob Findlay, were George S. Cembrowski, and second, Constance Ferschweiler.

The Grade ten Coleman School Board awards were presented by Board Chairman John Salus to Jo Ann Misura, Judy Zemek and Pat Ondrus.

Grade eleven Lions Club award winners were presented with their cheques by Lion President John Salus. Winners were Marilyn Lill, Colin Collister and Janice Sieracki.

The Grade twelve Order of the Royal Purple Scholarship was presented by Mrs. J. Kulig, the Honored Royal Lady of the lodge, to Stephen Truch, after which School Principal Horace Allen, on behalf of the former Coleman Volunteer Fire Brigade, presented their scholarship to Miss Faye Radley.

The Allen prize for the highest marks in Chemistry was a tie between Stephen Truch and Faye Radley, and was presented by Mr. Allen.

The Crows Nest Pass Hospital Auxiliary award was won by Miss Grace Powlyk who is now in training. The award, presented on behalf of the Auxiliary by Steve Ondrus, was accepted by Arthur Powlyk, on behalf of his sister.

An excellent program of entertainment was then provided after which coffee and lunch was served.

To Attend 3-day Watchtower Convention

W. L. Krish announced plans today to attend a three-day semi-annual Watchtower convention to be held in Lethbridge on October 2, 3 and 4 at the Lethbridge Sports Centre. As presiding minister of the Coleman congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, he will head a delegation of 10 persons in attending the convention.

This convention takes in nine congregations in Southern Alberta from Coleman to Vauxhall, including Vulcan. The purpose of the Watchtower Assembly is for Christian fellowship and instruction in more effectively teaching the "Good News of God's Kingdom" to others.

The theme of the Watchtower Assembly will be taken from Acts 4:31 - "Speak the Word of God with Boldness".

Mr. Clare Station, district representative from Toronto, Ont., and Mr. Lester Barker, circuit representative, will both address the gathering.

The climax of the Watchtower Assembly will be a Bible based public discourse, "Divided World—Is It Here To Stay?", delivered by C. Station on Sunday, October 4 at 3 p.m. Persons interested in lasting peace are cordially invited to attend.

Minerva Chapter, O.E.S., Hold Opening Meeting

Minerva Chapter No. 41, O.E.S., held their opening meeting of the season in the I.O.O.F. hall on September 17th. A delicious trout supper was served by the brother members and greatly enjoyed by all.

Visitors were present from Leta Chapter, Blairmore; Mrs. Harper, Grand Representative for Texas, U.S.A.; Mrs. Elizabeth Mitchell of Weyburn, Sask., and Mrs. John Morris of Kimberley, B. C.

Senior Citizens Enjoy Pot Luck Supper

Coleman Senior Citizens enjoyed a pot luck supper at its first meeting of the season, held on September 7th.

Following a short business meeting supper was served after which an evening of bingo was enjoyed.

Over 30 members attended and it is hoped that a good number of the members will turn out for future meetings.

J. Holyk Elected Mayor

John Holyk was elected by acclamation to the position of Mayor for the Town of Coleman to-day. The three vacancies on council are to be contested by five nominees, Ted Kryczka, Mel Cornett, Louis Bubinak, John Owen and Joe Wavrecan. Elected to the School Board of Trustees by acclamation were James Park and William Skura.

Coleman Legionnaires Enter Big Six League

An unexpected decision by Calgary Canadians, which was followed by other northern teams, has left the Big Six Hockey League divided with chances that only four teams will be left.

The Canadians, through manager Scotty Kaye, refused to agree to a schedule which would have them travel to rinks in south Alberta, during the league's annual meeting held in Lethbridge over the week-end.

Reason for the decision was expenses and the other northern representatives, one each from Calgary, Strathmore and Okotoks, went along with the Canadians.

Syd Hall, manager of the Lethbridge Sugar Kings, said he agreed to subsidize trips to Lethbridge by giving the northern teams 60 cents a mile. All but the Canadians went along with the plan.

It is not known whether the north squads plan to form their own league, but Taber, Medicine Hat, Lethbridge and Coleman decided to go ahead with their own plans, excluding the north.

The four squads will form a southern league, still under the Big Six label, but on an independent basis.

They will hold their own playoffs following a 24-game schedule which is tentatively slated to start November 4.

The four team managers will form a board of directors with a chairman to be named later.

Coleman Legionnaires are a new entry in the one-time seven-team loop. Each club will play 12 home games.

Since the Coleman team, which is now associated with Fernie, have entered the Big Six League all home games will be double-headers with one game to be played at Coleman on Saturdays and the second at Fernie on the Sundays.

Coaching the Legionnaires will be Rev. Denis Fleming and Dick Koenig, who have great plans for the new blood that is being injected into the Coleman line-ups this season.

Apple Blossoms In September

Mr. Jim Koury reports that he had Apple Blossoms in bloom on his apple tree last week.

Coleman Man Dies At Age 28

John Klevisky, age 28 years, died in a Lethbridge hospital on Sunday, September 13.

Born in Coleman, November 7, 1937, Mr. Klevisky attended elementary and high school here before being employed as a trucker and garage attendant.

At the time of his death he was employed as a driver with Lethbridge Northern Bus Lines. Predeceased by a twin brother, George in Coleman, 22 years ago, he is survived by his wife, Dorothy, sons Billy 6, and John 5, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Klevisky all of Coleman; a sister, Mrs. John (Leona) Wakalich of Crows Nest, B. C., and a step-brother Joseph Jumarichuk of Coleman.

Funeral services were held from St. Paul's United Church Wednesday afternoon, with Mr. Peter Walker officiating.

Interment was made in Coleman Union cemetery. Fantin's Hillside Chapel was in charge.

Coleman Ratepayers To Vote On Three Issues

Coleman ratepayers will vote on the polls on October 14th to vote on three separate issues as there will be vacancies on council and school board and a vote will also be taken to see if proprietary elections favor the council borrowing the sum of $260,000 for the installation of a sewage system to serve the town.

Nominations for the office of Mayor will be accepted until noon September 28th as the term of Mayor Jack Ostash expires and two vacancies on the council are also open for nominations as the terms of Ted Kryczka and Mel Cornett also expire.

The terms of School Board trustees James Park and William Skura also expire this year.

Polling booths are to be set up in the town council chambers.

Council Meet Govt. Officials

A representation of Coleman town officials comprising Councillors Joe Hanrahan, Rudy Szymonek, John Holyk; Town Secretary T. A. Collister and William Kovach, MLA, of Hillcrest, proceeded to Edmonton, Thursday, September 17th to meet with a committee of the provincial cabinet, to discuss water problems in West Coleman.

The government committee comprised Minister of Agriculture Harry Strom, Minister of Highways Gordon Taylor, Provincial Treasurer A. A. Aalborg, Minister of Health Dr. J. Donovan Ross, Minister of Lands and Forests Norman Willmore and A. J. Hooke of the Department of Municipal Affairs.

Earl Dean, engineer of the Water Resources Branch, presented a brief of the department's findings from the drilling and other survey work that was done in Coleman last spring to find where the water was coming from that was flooding basements in West Coleman year round.

A survey of the Crows Nest River in this area was also made with a view to dredging the river to lower the water table. Residents living in West Coleman are cursed with a year-round problem of water in the basements which water, besides producing an odor, prohibits home-owners from installing gas furnaces. Other inconveniences are also experienced by these residents due to the water condition.

Mr. Dean will visit Coleman this week to start preliminary arrangements for work to relieve the problem. The Cabinet is to meet September 22 to finalize their decisions on the matter.

To Jointly Sponsor Junior Citizenship Awards

Winners of this year's Alberta Junior Citizenship Awards were presented with a Canada Savings Bond and a framed certificate during the annual convention of the Alberta Weekly Newspaper Association held in Edmonton.

The winners were selected by a panel of weekly newspaper editors.

The Junior Citizenship program is sponsored by Calgary Power Ltd. with the enthusiastic co-operation of Alberta's weekly newspaper editors, to suitably recognize girls and boys between the ages of 6 and 16 who made a real contribution to their communities.

The field of qualification is broad state of officers.

Acts of physical heroism, and achievements of scholastic success under adverse circumstances, outstanding work with a church, social, school or other organization, or the shouldering of unusual home responsibilities, are but a few.

This year Calgary Power extended the Junior Citizenship Program to include group awards. It was felt that there were many boys or girls who, as a group had performed some act of merit or courage together and should be given the recognition they deserved.

As guests of Calgary Power the young award winners from various communities in Alberta were entertained at lunch in Edmonton G. H. Milligan, Director of Employment and Public Relations for Calgary Power presented them with their awards.

Winners of the 1963-64 awards were:

Lynn Dann of Vulcan, Alberta, who saved the life of her friend when she was caught in an icy mountain pool.

Gary Fry of Jasper Place, Alberta, who is only 12 years old

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

"Oh Mother, a Whole Month!"

Young Clara had come to the city to attend business college, and she was to work for her board and room. This meant getting up very early, preparing breakfast for the family, going to school for the day, and then doing supper dishes and a few other chores at night along with her homework.

Clara, who seldom did anything much at her own home, found the routine almost unbearable. She wanted to quit at the end of the first month. Her parents urged her to stick it out for another month and then they would arrange for her to move into a small apartment with another girl from the same part of the country. That's when Clara sounded her anguished cry, "Oh Mother, a whole month?"

I laughed when I heard it. I remember, at seventeen, how long a month was . . . how it stretched out almost infinitely, full of golden autumn days, dates, dances, and hikes through the woods. When you are seventeen a month is an eternity.

Today, at somewhat more than seventeen, a month is a minute. Like telegraph poles when a train speeds up, the months go by so fast they blend one into the other. I'd gladly pay young Clara's board and room myself if she could give me back that secret young folks have for running these months through some sort of slow-motion camera. September when the hunting season starts, is a month I would dearly love to slow right down to a snail pace.

And I wish October, with its brilliant colors, misty mornings and crisp evenings would take it a bit easier on the accelerator.

December, too, could loaf along a little, instead of leaping from the first, with its Christmas card list, to the 24th, when you must dash madly through the stores doing what you ought to have done long before.

Lucky young Clara. She's feeling very sorry for herself right now; but some years later, when the years have gathered speed, she'll be asking some other young girl how in the world you get Father Time to put the brakes on.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

By a Gay Man

James Reston, who writes for the New York Times, described a politician he knew as "A gay man in a solemn world."

How do you be a gay man? I have known only about half a dozen truly gay men in my lifetime. I've known many who put up a front of gaiety, like laughing clowns, but only a few who had within them an irrepressible gaiety that was genuine and persistent. They were wonderful persons; and I often tried to figure out how they got that way.

Without exception, they were very busy persons. Each had a hobby, and seemed to live in a state of persistent effort to get a bit more time to pursue it. I think this constant anticipation had something to do with their sparkle.

One was a priest in a small town. He was also catcher for the town baseball team. One night some team members gathered in his study. He was off cigarettes for Lent, and that started off the teasing. Then someone brought up the subject of the Confessional, saying that as far as he was concerned, he could never confess his sins to a young fellow like the priest.

The young Father said, "You'd probably be surprised at the casual acceptance of even your undoubtedly super-colossal sins, Fred. The sins that really bother most of the priests I know are seldom confessed - I mean sins like pride, or smallness, or meanness. People seem to prefer to confess to sex items, or 'bad thoughts' as the young boys put it. Not many confess the much more serious sins, like hating a neighbor or skinning someone on a deal or acting mean and cheap."

Seems to me that is part of the secret. - Avoid the cheap and mean and you've a pretty good chance to be gay. Says I, solemnly.

LOANS FOR STUDENTS Guaranteed by the Government of Canada

Purpose: The purpose of the Canada Student Loans Act is to facilitate bank loans for students who need financial help to continue full-time studies beyond secondary school level at Universities and other educational institutions

Who can apply: Any Canadian citizen, or anyone resident in Canada for one year who intends to live in Canada after completion of studies, may apply for a loan under the Act. An applicant must be enrolled or intend to enroll as a full-time student at an educational institution approved by provincial authorities, and must meet the standards of academic qualification and financial need established by the student loan authority in the Province in which he applies.

Amount of loans: Depending upon individual circumstances and financial need, loans up to $1,000 a year may be made, with a maximum of $5,000 during a student's academic career. The Provincial Authority receiving applications and determining eligibility will issue a certificate to each eligible student stating the maximum amount the student may borrow. This Certificate of Eligibility is required before a student can arrange a Government Guaranteed Student Loan with the bank of his choice.

Repayment: Interest-Free and Delayed Repayment Period

To assist students, the interest on loans during the period a student continues full-time studies, and for six months thereafter, will be paid by the Government of Canada. During this same period no repayment of principal is required, nor will any service charge or fee be payable by the student.

Method of Repayment

Borrowers will begin to pay interest and to repay loans six months after they cease to be full-time students. The current interest rate to students is 3% per annum. Normally the repayment period will be five to ten years. Borrowers have the right to repay loans in part or in full at any time without penalty.

Life Insured

In the event of the death of a borrower responsibility for repayment of the loans will be assumed by the Government of Canada.

Where to apply: Students resident in British Columbia, regardless of where they intend to study, should apply for a Certificate of Eligibility to:

British Columbia Student Aid Loan Committee,
c/o Department of Education,
Victoria, British Columbia.

The above notes are based upon the Canada Student Loans Act 1964 and are for reference only.
All applications and loans are subject to the full terms and conditions of the Act.

CANADA THEATRE

The 1964-65 Program Year moves into action through September and October.

Films will form a part of this developing activity drawn from the South Alberta Film Pool. Additional to the subjects available from the Pool, the National Film Board provides a set of eight selected Bonus Programs. They include subject of international, national and general interest.

Program A features John Cabot—Man of Renaissance, an interesting glimpse into the life of this adventurous merchant of Bristol, who gained the co-operation of the miserly Henry VIII of England for his voyage to America and his discovery of Newfoundland with its rich Grand Banks fisheries.

Program B features Alexander Mackenzie, Lord of the North—who in 1789-90 and 1791-92 made epic journeys of discovery to the Arctic Ocean and to the Pacific. One of the most intrepid explorers who ever lived, he allowed nothing to daunt him until his objective was reached. We thrill with him as we share his adventures down the great waterway that bears his name.

Program C features The Great Map-Maker—David Thompson—who, a century and a half ago, explored and mapped the great basin of the Columbia which only today, begins to yield its tremendous potential of power in the service of man.

Recently the Hon. Paul Martin, Minister for External Affairs, in addressing a distinguished gathering in Vancouver, stated that before long Canada will find it desirable to join the Organization of American States. A such a time a Minister does not make casual statements so we may assume this to be government policy. That being the case, we may profitably inform ourselves as to life and conditions within the lands of our Latin-American neighbors.

Consequently, Parts 1 and 2 of Background to Latin America—which are featured subjects in Programs D and E, will be of special concern to all Canadians who are interested in External Affairs.

Programs F, G and H feature respectively, The Goldsmiths—Northern Ontario before World War One; Stampede, the annual Calgary spectacle, and the Hutterites—a sympathetic and enlightening look at these interesting, industrious fellow-Canadians.

Owner should inspect house for faults

When you move into a new house do not expect everything to be perfect.

The new house is something like a new car—it needs adjustments and breaking-in. Sometimes it is hard to define where the builder's responsibility ends and the owner's begins, but the simplest rule is that the maintenance of the house is the owner's job.

In effect, he's the janitor of his own house. It's the builder's job to correct anything wrong arising out of poor workmanship or faulty material. Most builders are anxious to co-operate if you don't impose on them.

Builders have naturally built up resistance to owners who expect free repairs, but if an owner has a legitimate complaint he should let his builder know about it and the sooner the better.

The owner should be patient, though, keeping in mind that the builder is the manager of the job and has to rely on specialists. It takes a little time to get the right man and the right material.

Scheduling little repair jobs is not easy, and here's a useful tip—put your complaint in writing.

Your builder is a busy man and may be called away on something urgent before he gets a chance to make a note of your telephone call.

"Scooters" Do Carry Insurance

Gordon E. Taylor, Minister of Highways, announced recently that there appears to be a large number of owners of motor vehicles, motorcycles and scooters, who have not taken out public liability and property damage insurance on their vehicles nor purchased a green certificate.

He pointed out that it is an offence to operate without either the pink card showing that the vehicle is covered with public liability and property damage insurance or with the green certificate which carries no insurance coverage but that authorizes the vehicle to be on the road. "Scooters" are vehicles under the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act, and fathers of sons who operate these should make sure that the vehicle is covered with public liability and property damage insurance.

A number of prosecutions have already taken place in the province and the Minister of Highways reminds all owners of vehicles that it is most unwise to operate a vehicle without a public liability and property damage insurance policy, and that it is an offence punishable by a fine to operate without either the pink card or the green certificate.

Monday's opener is a Canadian variety show featuring host Donald Harron, singer Betty Robertson, comedian Dave Broadfoot, dancers Lynn Seymour and Christopher Gable of the Royal Ballet of London, England, and Maynard Ferguson's band.

Another premiere Monday night is Danger Man. In the first episode of the new hour-long series, Patrick McGowan, as agent John Drake, is sent to the Middle East to rescue an important espionage agent before the man is betrayed. Drake is exposed to two beautiful female complications and some undercover treachery as he races against time to rescue the agent. Danger Man debuts on the 28th at 9 p.m.

An exciting special for theatre-goers, Wednesday, September 30th at 9:30 is a television version of the smash hit, off-Broadway musical Fantasticks, now in its fifth year in the Sullivan Street Playhouse in New York City. The cast includes Ricardo Montalban, Bert Lahr, Susan Watson and John Davidson.

The Serial, which this year will stress more action and adventure stories, returns Thursday, October 1st at 8:30 p.m., with the first episode of "Convoy", the story of a Canadian corvette's search for German U-boats in the Battle of the Atlantic. Cast includes Jonathan White, Bill Nagy, Cec Montgomery and Alexander Webster. Once again the sports calendar is quite crowded with top events.

On The Baseball Game of the Week Saturday, September 26th, the Philadelphia Phillies, intent on clinching their first National League pennant since 1950, do battle with the hard-hitting Milwaukee Braves.

That same night, CBC-TV brings you a rematch of last year's Grey Cup game between the Hamilton Tiger-Cats and the B. C. Lions.

Lions will be intent on avenging their rather decisive defeat of last year. Game time is 9:30 p.m. in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, 8:30 p.m. in Alberta.

The NFL football game Sunday (at noon in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, 11 a.m. in Alberta) again brings together two of the top contenders in the Western Conference, the Chicago Bears and the Baltimore Colts. The Colts, after a great 5-0 exhibition record have got their lumps in the early season going and badly need a victory.

Letter to the Editor

PROGRESS

I, an old-timer, sometimes ponder as to the meaning of the word "Progress" in our community.

No doubt we are progressing in many ways with modern homes and schools, cement sidewalks in some areas and higher taxation. In another view I sometimes think we are gradually going backwards.

Forty years ago when I arrived here we boasted a self-maintained town. On our main street we had a dentist, Dr. R. Lillie; an optician, Mr. Bert McEwen; a doctors' office, Doctors Borden and McLean; a lawyer's office, Mr. R. F. Barnes; a first class bakery and a hospital where we could visit on shanks pony without the aid of a taxi. We also boasted a sports field within walking distance of town for the younger generation.

Now for all such services we are forced to travel out of town.

AN OLD-TIMER.
